SUBJECT Individuals offering intelligence but not acceptable to intelligence agencies in U.S. zone of Germany and Austria			DATE 21 Jan 53
PERTINENT INFORMATION
Name: Parkas, Ferenc, ex-General (Hungarian Liberty Movement, formerly known as Anti-Bolshevist Hungarian Liberty Movement). Area of Coverage: Hungarian activity in Austria and Bavaria, Germany and positive intelligence concerning Hungary through a courier system. Size of Net: Approximately 100 ex-Hungarian intelligence agents. Reason for Rejection: Investigation revealed PARKAS as probably being in contact with French intelligence authorities and using this contact as a method of obtaining funds for political maneuvering. The WHK was, and still is, heavily penetrated by Soviet agents. Excessive demands for large sums of money for which no suitable reasons of expenditure could be given, lead the investigating agency to believe that any support of the WHK net would be used primarily to finance PARKAS and his own political campaigns. Subject net is possibly being used by another American intelligence agency.
